

Designer & developer

Welcome to Joonas Salovaaras' CV

I'm a 24 years old web developer from Turku Finland. I love designing & developing websites and web apps using the newest technologies. At the moment I'm studying at University of Turku department of Information Technology. This year (2013) I'm available for hire during spring, summer and early autumn.

On this website you can check out some of my work, skills and education. Also feel free to download my CV in PDF format.
